MATTERS ARISING

Masons' Marks

Janet still to take rubbings at Corse Castle and to invite Lizzie to join her.

Lecture Series

Willow Lohr will give an informal talk at the Commercial rather host a visit. The date suggested for the talk is March 27th. Peter will contact Sandra to make the arrangements.

Archaeology

Nigel gave an update of progress at Poldhu Wells.

It is possible that the project could be completed by June 2008.

Veronica Ross has submitted specifications for the paths, bridge and steps. There is a proposed circular walk to be developed and way-marked through the woods.

Helen Bradley (CSA Officer) suggested that some funding might be sought from a charity which supports the continued use of old footpaths.

Echoes (Newsletter)

One hundred and twenty have been printed and are selling well.

Tarland Welfare Trust, Hall Planning Group

Janet provided copies of the minutes of the meeting held in November and the results of the Community Survey. She also pointed out that both are available on the Community website www.tarland.org.uk. She asked that members of CHG contact her if they have any points / views they would like to be expressed at the next meeting of the Hall Planning Group on Tuesday January 15th.

AOCB

It was agreed that we would hold our Post Christmas Dinner on Friday 25th January at The Commercial Hotel.
