APOLOGIES: Emma Murphy

Cromar Community Council Constitution

The new constitution for the Community Council was reviewed. Acceptance was proposed by Alec McVean and seconded by Joyce Lovie. Agreement was unanimous.

Any Other Business

There was a discussion concerning the best way to achieve community engagement and to maintain good communications with local estates.

The planning application for a hut at Coull was discussed. Information provided by Aberdeenshire Local Development Plan Team stated that huts were not appropriate for Aberdeenshire. By a vote of 5 to 2 it was agreed to submit an objection so that the policy on huts could be discussed by the Marr Area Committee.
